Ed,

I would start out and write what a nice, sweet, and cute boy you are, but all those lies have already been written. I hope you don't believe them. (You really are the sweetest and cutest boy in P.H.S. but I didn't write it because it might go to your head.)

I never thought we would make it. It just doesn't seem right to be Senior. I can think of a lot of fun things we did since 10th grade. Remember those times when I did my homework, I had to make another copy for you. You were a mess, but I loved every minute of it and every part of you. You always stood beside me when the going got tough. I'll never forget the eight grade when all the girls turned against me and you stood up for me. You were really great and you still are. You will always be a brother to me. Remember that night we went ending for Howard. I think you were a little afraid. But we had fun, didn't you? You are a great baseball and basketball player. You should get that award Jimmy got and I hope you do.

I enjoy just talking to you once in awhile. I wish you would come to see me more often. I've missed you at Smithfield. Those two years were the best of my life. I'm running out of space so I'll quit. I hope you have all life has to offer, you really deserve it. Ya Taylor

Love ya,

PINE NEEDLE

Volume XV

Foreword

This year was basically the same as any high school year; we studied - had fun, experienced sad moments of trial and error. There were games and dances; voices were hoarse from pep rooting and singing. All shared the hopeless reality of examination and deadlines, the semester grades, the noontime cafeteria rush. These impressions are only a few that were packed into this full year.

The PINE NEEDLE Staff, however, has furnished only the outlines of the story that we find when we turn these pages filled with warm smiles of friendship and many happy recollections. The rest is up to the individual. Underclassmen who return to Pine Level High School in the fall will continue to keep up the standards of the school and strive for improvement. Graduates will go their separate ways using the knowledge they have gained here to reach their successes.

It is not today that we will appreciate the PINE NEEDLE. Tomorrow, when it is not so easy to think back on 1964, we will treasure the memories this book has stored for us.

We, the class of 1964 of Pine Level High School, proudly dedicate this edition of the Pine Needle to Mr. Jimmy Parker. It is our way of expressing our gratitude and sincere appreciation for all that he has done as our teacher, coach and friend.

It is with sincere devotion and love that we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Parker. We hope that throughout the years to come he will remember our class with fond memories.

Class of 1964

As a teacher of Social Studies, Mr. Parker teaches the past and present events of the world.

As a coach, Mr. Parker helps the boys in developing their skill in sports.

OUR ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear old School how we love you!
We'll shout your Praise where'er we go, Dear School,
And to your name be ever true.

Here's to thee, Pine Level High School;
Always will we honor thee.
Our lives will show, Dear School, how we love you.
We will be forever true.

COMPLIMENTS

Ed,
I have truly enjoyed being in school with you these great years. You are one that really keeps the school spirit up with your mischievious pep. You have always been good about taking Brenda, Bonnie, Nellie or a group of us to Wades after the basketballs game. We always enjoyed it. I know if you try hard you can be a huge success in life. Good luck in the future.
Your friend,
Gene

Ed Parker

Ed, how I sure good I'm going to school with yo time, for the past years I enjoyed going What ball practice with you and also Parker's about your favorite father (Mr. Parker) when we didn't like something he did. I can't say that I wish we had to go to school right on together because, frankly I'm glad that this year is it, unless we don't pass.
I hope you receive the best out of life in the years to follow because you sure have enjoyed yourself this year.

Best Wishes Always
Lynwood

Edwin,
I really don't know what to say. you are a very nice "little fellow" when you want to be, but at times you like to aggravate. I can truly say I have enjoyed being in school [redacted] with you for the past years. I hope you succeed in anything you try to do.
a friend,
Pat

Edwin,
I really don't know how to explain just how much I think of you. I hope you know that I do think a lot of you and always will.
You're a real nice and likable person. Just keep up that sniky smile. You have a great personality Edwin, keep it that way. Good luck always.
May God Bless!
a friend forever,
Savannah

Edwin

It has really been nice being in your room for these last few years. We have had some good times together like when we were building the platform for the Jr. Sr. banquet last year. Also the play we put on for Hardbarger and our getting sent together. If we go to Hardbarger's we probably will be together for a while longer. Best of luck in the future.

a friend,

Joan

Although you
the most aggravating cocked I've ever seen can also "quiet" sometimes.
can truly say that you are the nearest boy I know. You might take that as an insult but really it isn't meant that way. You have been a true friend the past 2 years and I appreciate everything you have done for me. Not only are you a friend of mine but also my mother and father. Best of luck in the future and please try to stay out of trouble!

a friend always,

Joan

Edwin

I have indeed enjoy being a classmate 2 years. I would like to wish you the best of luck in the future. May God bless you each day.

Darrell

Edwin
I have enjoyed having you as a classmate. You are a very nice and friendly
boy. I hope that you will have all of the success in the world.
May God bless and keep you always.

a friend
always Hilda

Ed,
I'll bet Hilda also and you never amount to a row of beans. But I have enjoyed being one of your pals and classmates this year. I hope you succeed in the future.

Your fellow slob
Herbert Foster

Blanco,

You are a pure slob who will never amount to anything. You're mean, hateful, sneaky, stupid, and a plum devil. I've hated every day I've had to go to school with you and I'll forget you as soon as possible. May your future be miserable and full of trouble!

Hate always,
Mary

P.S. - I really love you, Edwin, and I can hardly wait to start to school next fall. Maybe we can figure out some way to have a ball. You're a darling, Ed, and I'll never forget you. I hope that someday you'll realize that all the girls aren't for you..... one is a customer. Stay as mean as you are and you'll have plenty of enemies as well as friends.
